The Supplier grants to the Client a non-exclusive, revocable, worldwide, royalty free and non-transferable license to use the Supplier's Intellectual Property.
- 14.3 In relation to any Supplier Intellectual Property, the Client acknowledges that such Supplier Intellectual Property may only be compatible with the current versions of other software and/or hardware as indicated by the Supplier to the Client and the Supplier provides no guarantee that such Supplier Intellectual Property will be compatible with later versions of other software and/or hardware. For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise agreed between the parties in writing, the Supplier is under no obligation to supply the Client with any updates or add-ons to any Supplier Intellectual Property.
- 14.4 For the purposes of this Agreement, "Intellectual Property Rights" shall mean, all patents, rights to inventions, copyright and neighbouring and related rights, moral rights, trademarks and service marks, business names and domain names, rights in get-up, goodwill and the right to sue for passing off or unfair competition, rights in designs, rights in computer software, database rights, rights to use, and protect the confidentiality of, confidential information, and all other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all applications and rights to apply for and be granted, renewals or extensions of, and rights to claim priority from, such rights and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection which subsist or will subsist now or in the future in any part of the world.

- 14.5 Subject to Clauses 14.6 and 14.7, if any claim is made against the Client for infringement of Intellectual Property Rights arising directly from the use of the Deliverables ("IPR Claim"), the Supplier at its own expense shall take control of and conduct any litigation in relation to such IPR Claim and all negotiations for settlement of the IPR Claim shall be dealt with by the Supplier. The Supplier shall be responsible for any payments in relation to the IPR Claim (either by way of a lump sum or a continuing royalty payment) made in settlement, or as a result of an award in a judgment against the Supplier.
- 14.6 Subject to Clause 14.7, the Client shall only have the rights granted by Clause 14.5 if the Client gives the Supplier the earliest possible notice in writing of any such IPR Claim being made or action threatened or brought against it, and the Client shall make no admission of liability or take any other action in connection with the IPR Claim. The Client shall permit the Supplier to have the conduct of the IPR Claim pursuant to Clause 14.5 and shall (at the Supplier's expense) give all reasonable information, co-operation and assistance to the Supplier (including without limitation lending its name to proceedings) in relation to the conduct of the IPR Claim.
- 14.7 The provisions of Clause 14.5 shall not apply to any infringement caused by the Supplier having followed any specification or instructions given by the Client or use of the Services for a purpose prohibited by the Supplier, or to any infringement which is due to the use of the Services in association or combination with any other software or product (other than any software which is supplied by the Supplier as part of the Services).
- 14.8 If an IPR Claim is brought or in the reasonable opinion of the Supplier is likely to be made or brought, the Supplier may at its own expense ensure that the Client is still able to use the Deliverables by either:
- (a) modifying any and all of the provisions of the Deliverables without reducing the performance and functionality for any or all of the provision of the Deliverables, so as to avoid the infringement or the alleged infringement, provided that the terms herein shall apply mutatis mutandis to such modified or substituted services and such modified or substituted services shall be acceptable to the Client, such acceptance not to be unreasonably withheld; or
 - (b) procuring a licence or permission to use the Deliverables on terms which are acceptable to the Client, such acceptance not to be unreasonably withheld.
- 14.9 Except to the extent that the Supplier should reasonably have known or advised the Client the foregoing provisions of Clause 14.8, the Supplier shall have no obligation or liability for any IPR Claim to the extent such IPR Claim arises from:
- (a) any use by or on behalf of the Client of the combination with any item not supplied or recommended by the Supplier where such use of the Deliverables directly gives rise to the claim, demand or action; or
 - (b) any modification carried out on behalf of the Client to any item supplied by the Supplier under this Agreement if such modification is not authorised by the Supplier in writing where such modification directly gives rise to a claim, demands or action.

LICENCE OF SOFTWARE

"Software" means the Supplier's proprietary software including, for the avoidance of doubt any apps it has or will develop, in machine-readable object code form only as set out in the Statement of Work, including any error corrections, updates, upgrades, modifications and enhancements to it.

- 14.10 In consideration of the Fee paid by the Client to the Supplier, receipt of which the Supplier hereby acknowledges, the Supplier grants to the Client a non-exclusive, revocable, worldwide, non-transferable licence to use the Software at sites as identified within the Statement of Work and for the duration of this Agreement or for the duration set out in the Statement of Work, as applicable.
- 14.11 In relation to scope of use:
- (a) for the purposes of Clause 14.10, use of the Software shall be restricted to use of the Software in object code form for the purpose of processing the Client's data for the normal business purposes of the Client (which shall not include allowing the use of the Software by, or for the benefit of, any person other than an employee of the Client).
 - (b) For the purposes of Clause 14.10, "use of the Software" means loading the Software into temporary memory or permanent storage on the relevant computer, provided that installation on a network server for distribution to other computers is not "use" if the Software is licensed under this licence for use on each computer to which the Software is distributed.
 - (c) the Client may not use the Software other than as specified in Clause 14.10 and Clause 14.11 without the prior written consent of the Supplier, and the Client acknowledges that additional fees may be payable on any change of use approved by the Supplier.
 - (d) except as expressly stated in this Clause 14, the Client has no right (and shall not permit any third party) to copy, adapt, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify, adapt or make error corrections to the Software in whole or in part except to the extent that any reduction of the Software to human readable form (whether by reverse engineering, decompilation or disassembly) is necessary for the purposes of integrating the operation of the Software with the operation of other software or systems used by the Client, unless the Supplier is prepared to carry out such action at a reasonable commercial fee or has provided the information necessary to achieve such integration within a reasonable period, and the Client shall request the Supplier to carry out such action or to provide such information (and shall meet the Supplier's reasonable costs in providing that information) before undertaking any such reduction.
- 14.12 The Client may not use any such information provided by the Supplier or obtained by the Client during any such reduction permitted under Clause 14.11(d) to create any software whose expression is substantially similar to that of the Software nor use such information in any manner which would be restricted by any copyright subsisting in it.
- 14.13 The Client shall not:
- (a) sub-license, assign or novate the benefit or burden of this licence in whole or in part, unless expressly consented to in writing by the Supplier;
 - (b) allow the Software to become the subject of any charge, lien or encumbrance; and
 - (c) deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Supplier.
- 14.14 The Client shall:
- (a) ensure that the Software is installed on designated equipment only;

- (b) keep a complete and accurate record of the Client's copying and disclosure of the Software and its users, and produce such record to the Supplier on request from time to time;
- (c) notify the Supplier as soon as it becomes aware of any unauthorized use of the Software by any person;
- (d) pay, for broadening the scope of the licences granted under this licence to cover the unauthorized use, an amount equal to the fees which the Supplier would have levied (in accordance with its normal commercial terms then current) had it licensed any such unauthorised use on the date when such use commenced.

14.15 The Client shall permit the Supplier to inspect and have access to any premises (and to the computer equipment located there) at or on which the Software is being kept or used, and have access to any records kept in connection with this licence, for the purposes of ensuring that the Client is complying with the terms of this licence, provided that the Supplier provides reasonable advance notice to the Client of such inspections, which shall take place at reasonable times.

14.16 The Client warrants that it shall not compete with the Software product during the term of this Agreement and for a period of six (6) years thereafter. For the purpose of this clause 'compete' shall mean making a similar product and / or Software commercially available.

15. THIRD PARTY SERVICES

15.1 The Supplier shall (if requested by the Client) procure the third-party licences and or services (together, "Third Party Services") as set out in the applicable Statement of Work. The Supplier expressly excludes any warranty to the Client that the Third Party Services supplied or licensed by it under this Agreement will operate substantially in accordance with, and perform, the material functions and features as set out in its marketing, sales or other associated documentations. The Client shall remain liable for any and all payments owed to the Supplier throughout this Agreement from the point of acquisition of the licence and until the end of the respective licence terms and shall adhere to any End User Licence Agreements and any other agreements sent by such third party in relation to the Third Party Services.

15.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Supplier shall only be held liable to the extent permitted under the respective Licence Agreements for the actions or omissions of any third parties and shall not be held liable for the actions and or omissions of any other third party.

16. CLIENT PERSONAL DATA

16.1 For the purposes of Clauses 16.1 to 16.8, the following definitions shall apply:

"Applicable Data Protection Legislation" means:

- a) To the extent the UK data protection law applies: all applicable data protection and privacy legislation in force from time to time in the UK including the UK GDPR; the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) (and regulations made thereunder) and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 (SI 2003/2426) as amended.
- b) To the extent the EU GDPR applies: the law of the European Union or any member state of the European Union to which the Supplier is subject, which relates to the protection of personal data;

"Client Personal Data" means any personal data which the Supplier processes in connection with this Agreement, in the capacity of a processor on behalf of the Client;

"Applicable Laws" means all applicable laws, statutes, regulations from time to time in force which relate to the business of the applicable party;

“EU GDPR” means the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) as it has effect in EU law; and “UK GDPR” has the meaning given to it in section 3(10) (as supplemented by section 205(4)) of the Data Protection Act 2018.

- 16.2 The terms controller, processor, data subject, personal data, personal data breach and processing shall have the meaning given to them in the Applicable Data Protection Legislation;
- 16.3 Both parties will comply with all applicable requirements of Applicable Data Protection Legislation. Clause 16.1 to 16.8 are in addition to, and do not relieve, remove or replace, a party's obligations or rights under Applicable Data Protection Legislation.
- 16.4 The parties have determined that, for the purposes of Applicable Data Protection Legislation, the Supplier shall process the personal data set out in the applicable Statement of Work, as a processor on behalf of the Client.
- 16.5 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 16.3, the Client will ensure that it has all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the Client Personal Data to the Supplier for the duration and purposes of this agreement.
- 16.6 In relation to the Client Personal Data, the applicable Statement of Work sets out the scope, nature and purpose of processing by the Supplier, the duration of the processing and the types of personal data and categories of data subject.
- 16.7 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 16.3 the Supplier shall, in relation to Client Personal Data:
- (a) process that Client Personal Data only on the documented instructions of the Client, which shall be to process that Personal Data for the purpose as set out in the applicable Statement of Work;
 - (b) implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Client Personal Data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Client Personal Data, which the Client has reviewed and confirms are appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures;
 - (c) ensure that any personnel engaged and authorised by the Supplier to process Client Personal Data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory or common law obligation of confidentiality;
 - (d) assist the Client insofar as this is possible (taking into account the nature of the processing and the information available to the Supplier), and at the Client's cost and written request, in responding to any request from a data subject and in ensuring the Client's compliance with its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Legislation with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators;
 - (e) notify the Client without undue delay on becoming aware of a personal data breach involving the Client Personal Data;
 - (f) at the written direction of the Client, delete or return Client Personal Data and copies thereof to the Client on termination of this Agreement unless the Supplier is required by Applicable Laws to continue to process that Client Personal Data. For the purposes of this Clause 16.7(f) Client Personal Data shall be considered deleted where it is put beyond further use by the Supplier; and
 - (g) maintain records to demonstrate its compliance with Clauses 16.1 to 16.8 and allow for reasonable audits by the Client or the Client's designated auditor, for this purpose, on reasonable written notice.
- 16.8 The Client hereby provides its prior, general authorisation for the Supplier to:
- (a) appoint processors to process the Client Personal Data, provided that the Supplier:

- (i) shall ensure that the terms on which it appoints such processors comply with Applicable Data Protection Legislation, and are consistent with the obligations imposed on the Supplier in Clauses 16.1 to 16.8;
 - (ii) shall remain responsible for the acts and omission of any such processor as if they were the acts and omissions of the Supplier; and
 - (iii) shall inform the Client of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of the processors, thereby giving the Client the opportunity to object to such changes provided that if the Client objects to the changes and cannot demonstrate, to the Supplier's reasonable satisfaction, that the objection is due to an actual or likely breach of Applicable Data Protection Legislation, the Client shall indemnify the Supplier for any losses, damages, costs (including legal fees) and expenses suffered by the Supplier in accommodating the objection.
- (b) transfer Client Personal Data outside of the UK as required to deliver the Services, provided that the Supplier shall ensure that all such transfers are effected in accordance with Applicable Data Protection Legislation. For these purposes, the Client shall promptly comply with any reasonable request of the Supplier, including any request to enter into standard data protection clauses adopted by the EU Commission from time to time (where the EU GDPR applies to the transfer) or adopted by the Commissioner from time to time (where the UK GDPR applies to the transfer).

17. NO PARTNERSHIP OR AGENCY

Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the parties, constitute any part of the agent of another party, or authorise any party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other party.

18. ASSIGNMENT

The Supplier may assign or otherwise transfer the whole or any part of this Agreement, including any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Client.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND COUNTERPARTS

19.1 This Agreement, each Statement of Work (together with any documents referred to therein) and any Variation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.

19.2 Each party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this Agreement. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in this Agreement.

19.3 No alteration to or variation of this Agreement shall take effect unless and until a Variation Agreement is signed on behalf of each of the parties by a duly authorised representative.

20. SEVERANCE

If any provision or part-provision of this Agreement is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this Clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of this Agreement.

21. THIRD PARTY RIGHTS

No one other than a party to this Agreement shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.

22. NOTICES

- 22.1 Any notice or other communication required to be given to a party under or in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or sent by pre-paid first class post or other next working day delivery service, at its registered office (if a company) or (in any other case) its principal place of business; or shall be sent by electronic mail to the email address set out on the Statement of Work or otherwise notified to either party by the other party in writing,

- 22.3 This Clause does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any arbitration or other method of dispute resolution. For the purposes of this Clause, "writing" shall include e-mail.

23. RELIEF EVENTS

- 23.1 Subject to Clause 11.1, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Supplier shall have no liability for failure to perform the Services or its other obligations under this Agreement if it is prevented, hindered or delayed in doing so as a result of any Relief Event.
- 23.2 For the purposes of this Clause 23, "Relief Events" shall mean the following events:
- (a) any failure by the Client to comply with its obligations under this Agreement;
 - (b) any error or malfunction in the business systems or any other software, hardware or systems for which the Supplier is not responsible or any failure by the Client, its agents or contractors (including any existing service provider) to obtain sufficient support and maintenance, as required, for any software, hardware or systems for which the Supplier is not responsible;

24. FORCE MAJEURE

24.1 Neither party to this Agreement shall be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement or any Statement of Work, or otherwise liable to the other party in any manner whatsoever for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement or any Statement of Work due to a force majeure event. For the purposes of this Agreement, force majeure means any cause preventing either party from performing any or all of its obligations which arises from or is attributable to acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond the reasonable control of the party so prevented including, without limitation, act of God, war, pandemics and epidemics, riot, civil commotion, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, flood or storm, save that strike or lockout of the party's own staff shall not entitle them to claim that to be a force majeure event ("Force Majeure").

24.2 A party shall only be entitled to claim relief under this Clause if it:

- (a) informs the other party as soon as reasonably possible that an event of Force Majeure has occurred and its expected duration; and
- (b) uses all reasonable endeavours to mitigate, overcome or minimise the effects of the event of Force Majeure concerned, and that if the period of delay or non-performance continues for six months or more, either party may terminate the Agreement by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice to the other party.

25. NON-SOLICITATION

25.1 It is not intended that any staff be transferred from the Supplier to the Client or from the Client to the Supplier pursuant to this Agreement or that any 'relevant transfer' occur for the purposes of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 ("TUPE"). In the event that the parties agree that TUPE does apply at either entry and/or exit then the provisions as set out at Schedule 2 shall take priority over this Clause 25.1.

25.2 The Client shall not solicit the Supplier's staff or contractors who have been employed or engaged in the Services or the performance of this Agreement during the lifetime of this Agreement and for a period of nine (9) months thereafter. For the purposes of this Clause "solicit" means the soliciting of such person with a view to engaging such person as an employee, director, subcontractor or independent contractor.

25.3 In the event that the Client is in breach of Clause 25.1 above then the Client shall pay to the Supplier by way of liquidated damages an amount equal to thirty percent (30%) of the gross annual budgeted fee income (as at the time of the breach or when such person was last in the service of the relevant party) of the person so employed or engaged. This provision shall be without prejudice to the Supplier's ability to seek injunctive relief.

25.4 The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that the formula specified in Clause 25.3 above is a reasonable estimate of the loss which would be incurred by the loss of the person so employed or engaged.

26. ANTI BRIBERY

The parties agree to abide by all applicable laws, regulations and sanctions in respect of anti-bribery and anti-corruption, including the Bribery Act 2010.

27. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

27.1 If a dispute arises under the Agreement ("Dispute"), including any Dispute arising out of any amount due to a party hereto, then before bringing any suit, action or proceeding in connection with such Dispute, a party must first give written notice of the Dispute, within seven (7) Business Days of the Dispute arising to the other party describing the Dispute and requesting that it is resolved under this dispute resolution process ("Dispute Notice").

27.2 If the parties are unable to resolve the Dispute within thirty (30) calendar days of delivery of the Dispute Notice, then each party will promptly (but no later than five (5) Business Days thereafter):

(a) appoint a designated representative who has sufficient authority to settle the Dispute and who is at a higher management level than the person with direct responsibility for the administration of the Agreement ("Designated Representative"); and

(b) notify the other party in writing of the name and contact information of such Designated Representative.

27.3 The Designated Representatives will then meet as often as they deem necessary in their reasonable judgement to discuss the Dispute and negotiate in good faith to resolve the Dispute. The Designated Representatives will use reasonable endeavours to negotiate and mutually determine the format for such discussions and negotiations, provided that all reasonable requests for relevant information relating to the Dispute made by one party to the other party will be honoured.

27.4 If the Parties are unable to resolve the Dispute within thirty (30) calendar days after the appointment of both Designated Representatives the Dispute shall be taken to mediation. The mediator is to be agreed between the Parties.

28. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

28.1 This Agreement, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

28.2 Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter or formation.
